

XM radio is best thing to come out in years. In a broadcasting world so bombarded with senseless, repetitive ads, it is a breath of fresh air. I can understand why NAB is fighting this revolutionary technology. They realize it to be superior and see their demise. Please be fair to public and not the special intrests of NAB. Veto any petition 04-160 and any future ones attempting to restrict satilite radio.
Terry Tiller